

Minnesota Center for Reading Research presents: 2020 Fall Online Literacy Workshops

KEYNOTE ADDRESS: OCTOBER 20, 2:00 P.M. CST
WEAVING WORDS:
PHONICS, VOCABULARY, & SPELLING FOR COMPREHENSIVE LITERACY INSTRUCTION
Donald Bear, Professor Emeritus and
Former Reading Center Director
International Expert in Word Study

Enhance your curriculum

We don't just cover the latest research findings in literacy education; We help you apply them to your work in the classroom.

Learn from UMN researchers

UMN faculty and staff lead you through workshop topics such as evidence-based practices in reading, writing, assessment, English learners, and supporting students with dyslexia.

Network with literacy leaders

Find out how other literacy professionals are advancing reading outcomes. Reflect on your classroom, school, and district practices.

College of Education and Human Development

Speaking of Phonics... What Educators Need to Know About Current Topics in Literacy

OCTOBER 20-
DECEMBER 31

ONLINE
REGISTRATION:
$99 GENERAL
$49 STUDENT
(EARN CEUS)

SIGN UP NOW!
LIVE SESSIONS

Z.UMN.EDU/MCRR2020

October 20- December 31

View asynchronous sessions from a variety of researchers affiliated with the College of Education and Human Development on their literacy projects and classroom implications for instruction. Engage in workshops on your own schedule.

Phonics Live! Sessions, times TBD

Sessions for each instructional level

Join MCRR staff to dig into phonics and word study instruction at each developmental level, discuss how phonics can be taught digitally, and ask questions specific to your needs.

Department of
Curriculum and Instruction

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA
Driven to Discover®